RE: Additional Clarification of RFQ Submission
Requirements

DATE: May 31, 2023

cc:

NOTICE TO ALL POTENTIAL RESPONDENTS

This memo of clarification is not an addendum or amendment to the RFQ. It is simply informational. The deadline for Q&A has passed, but TAPS wants to make sure that all respondents are providing only the information required. All requirements to be submitted are listed on page 9 “Response Submission Requirements”.

RFQ Clarification

Page 25 – Architectural and Engineering (A&E) Services Independent Cost Estimate

This form is not required to be submitted with the RFQ response. It is an example of costs TAPS is required to submit to federal funding agencies after final award and negotiation of cost.

Potentially a performance bond may be required of the agency awarded the contract. This form is asking if the agency is bondable and who the agency is currently bonded through.
